ONE BALL STATE DAY: HOW TO PREPARE

by The Social Media Team

In just a few short weeks, One Ball State Day will be taking over campus. One Ball State Day, also referred to as OBSD, is a fundraising for multiple different organizations, colleges, and more all across campus. As a student organization, WCRD will be participating! Below is a list of things you can do in order to prepare for OBSD.

1. Add it to your calendar: the first step to being prepared is to know when it is!
2. Share our posts on social media: it is one of the best ways to spread the word!
3. Visit oneballstated.bsu.edu to learn more information.

Did you know you can even name a Ball State goose? For $19.18 you can name a goose and receive a digital certificate!

GOODBYE WINTER

by The Programming Team

Sunday March 10th was Daylight savings, where we all sprung forward! At 2am, all clocks went up by a hour. Mornings will be darker and colder for the weeks leading up to the summer and spring months. Make sure to prepare for the chilly mornings as you walk to class!

MEDIA SCHOLARSHIP DEADLINE EXTENDED

by The Social Media Team

The Department of Media offers media students the opportunity to complete a scholarship form every year, based on the scholarships they are most eligible for. The deadlines to complete the scholarship application is Monday March 18th at 11:59pm.

All students should have received a personalized link to their application via email. If you did not receive an email or are in need of a new one, please contact Michael Lee with the username michaellee@bsu.edu to request a new personalized link.

MARCH MADNESS SHOWS

by The Programming Team
